GLANCD A Annual Meeting and Member Luncheon

Over 160 dealer members, legislators and professional service providers convened at the Universal Hilton in Universal City on Tuesday, July 16th for the Annual Member Luncheon and Meeting. This annual meeting provided an opportunity to listen to a review of the association’s work for the fiscal year and to hear about plans for the future.

Members also heard from Senator Alex Padilla who discussed current legislation and the relevance it has for the dealer members and the retail automobile industry on a local, state and even the national level. In addition, Los Angeles Times sports columnists, Bill Plaschke and Sam Farmer spoke in a very comfortable panel format with the theme of “Notes, Quotes and Anecdotes”, which included colorful stories of teams and individuals that make up some of the Los Angeles area recent sports history.

During the Annual Meeting, several new board members were installed. GLANCD A welcomes new President, Ian Thomas, new Vice President Pete Smith and Secretary-Treasurer Fritz Hitchcock. GLANCD A also honored retiring board member John Hawkins for over 15 years of service and leadership to the association. David Ellis will serve as Immediate Past President.

For those of you who attended the event, thank you for your participating!

Senator Alex Padilla gives GLANCD A attendees an update on important legislation.

KARL ROVE TO ADDRESS 2013 WASHINGTON CONFERENCE

Wednesday, September 18 - Thursday, September 19

Political strategist and popular pundit Karl Rove will be a featured speaker at the 2013 NADA Washington Conference on September 19. Rove is well known for his knowledge of major political issues, having served as senior advisor and deputy chief of staff to President George W. Bush. He is the author of the bestselling Courage and Consequence and is currently a Fox News contributor and Wall Street Journal columnist.

Plan now to attend the 2013 conference. Auto finance, taxes, vehicle recalls and numerous other issues are on the federal agenda in Washington, D.C. How the government proceeds on these issues will have a direct effect on you, your employees and your dealership. It is imperative that you attend the 2013 Washington Conference to better educate Congress as to how dealerships work and how some government policies could hinder your ability to grow your business and hire more people.

Plans for the conference are well under way. As always, it will feature top Congressional speakers, up-to-the-minute legislative briefings, a DEAC overview, a media workshop and, perhaps most importantly, opportunities to meet with your Representatives and Senators. On the evening of Wednesday, September 18, we'll welcome everyone to Washington with a reception at the incomparable Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum.

To encourage younger dealers' involvement in the grassroots process and demonstrate the broader value of NADA and state and local dealer associations, again this year, we urge each state association to bring a NextGen dealer. The NextGen dealer invitation is open to those near the age of 40 or younger. NADA will reimburse the dealer's coach airfare.

Register online today. The 2013 Washington Conference will be at the Capital Hilton, located at 1001 16th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., September 18-19.

Here's how the schedule is shaping up:
